

PITT POLITICAL REVIEW

FALL 2011

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

KELLY POSENAU

SENIOR EDITORS

RAAKA KUMBHAKAR
THOMAS VISCO

CHIEF COPY EDITOR

NAOMI LATORRACA

EDITORIAL BOARD

CALLUM ABBOT
LAUREN BELAYNEH
DANIELLE BISSERT
ANDREW COLAIZZI
AMANDA DRENNEN
PALWASHA KHAN
NYAAE SLANGER
REBECCA WINDER
LEANNE WOIEWODSKI

COPY EDITING BOARD

LIZ KEENEY
HELEN HADLEY PRATT
ANNA QUINN

CONTRIBUTING ARTISTS

TJ COLLANTO
KAREN LUE
VAUGHN WALLACE

*Ed Denslow of Gibsonia, PA leads a march of more than a thousand from the Hill District's Freedom Corner to Market Square and Mellon Green, October 15, 2011, on a day of action organized by Occupy Pittsburgh.
Photo Credit: Vaughn Wallace*

The Pitt Political Review is dedicated to rigorous discussion of political science, economics, international affairs, and politics on the local, national, and global levels. The Review publishes writing that analyzes issues, events, and personalities, assuming nothing of the reader but a common interest in the subject. Our goal is to contribute to the lively political discourse at Pitt and beyond.

This term, our staff writers have addressed an array of important global and national issues. All of the articles reflect an awareness of the impact of reform around the world, from national governments in India and Africa, to domestic state governments. The articles in this issue all address human initiative to change the world in some way, whether through street protests, tax reform, or a reformation of U.S. foreign policy. Whether or not these movements are successful will have to be addressed in future issues of the Pitt Political Review. We invite you to evaluate our writers' arguments; please contact us at pittpoliticalreview@gmail.com or visit our website at ppr.pitt.edu.

The Pitt Political Review is a publication of the University of Pittsburgh Honors College, which is published online by the University Library System of the University of Pittsburgh. The staff of the Review thanks Dean Edward Stricker, Karen Billingsley, and the staff of the UHC and ULS for making publication of the Review possible. Furthermore, we extend our deepest gratitude to our faculty advisor, Cindy Skrzycki, a senior lecturer in the English Department.

ON THE COVER: Illustration by Karen Lue

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Cover Story

- A Monsoon in Delhi 1
Anna Hazare, the Lokpal Bill, and the Future of India
by Mark T. Kozlowski

Features

- Nervous Giant 8
China and the Financial Crisis
by Patrick Farrell
- Reform and Revolution 12
The Arab Spring at One Year
by Simon Brown
- Tax Reform 17
The Cure to the United States' Economic Slowdown
by Thomas Joseph Lonergan
- The Fourth Branch of Government 21
How Direct Democracy is Altering the Structure of State Governments
by Thomas Helgerman

Also Inside

- God Save the King 25
Letter From Swaziland
by Zoe Samudzi
- The Next American Century 28
A Tradition Hard Power Problem or a New World Order?
by Thomas Visco and Alex Zimmerman